Grand SPECIAL SaleDRY GOODS.

Why special? We'll tell you why. Because, owing to the backwardness of the season and the consequent accumulation of stocks of merchandise in the hands of importers and home manufacturers. We have been enabled to buy nearly all classes of goods at much lower prices than could otherwise have ever been reached. We know that price is no object if the article has not some intrinsic value. We have always made it a CARDINAL PRINCIPLE, in the fifteen years of our experience in the Dry Goods business, to buy no fabrics of any class or description which we did not know to be of good wearing qualities, and about which we were willing to say to our customers, "If not satisfactory in every particular return to us, and we will refund you the price paid." Such low prices as the present overstocked condition of the market has made necessary is the golden opportunity for us to gain your favor and largely increase our sales by offering the best class of goods at less than ordinary prices. When opportunity has offered we have not hesitated to buy largely at auction, and again we have bought at private sale large quantities of goods at our own price.

The first requisite in buying articles of wear is quality. The second requisite is price. When, therefore, we are enabled by reasons above stated to combine these two requisites—quality and price—in an unusual degree, we think we are justified in making a
